After checking in with folks, Thursday is not an option for Burt and Friday is not an option for Jay. Both Burt and Jay can meet Wednesday afternoon.

I have put in a call to Nancy Musgrove and John Toll about Wednesday but have not heard back. In the meantime, please let me know if Wednesday afternoon will work for you.

Thanks, Eric

On the November 4th meeting/conference call with LWG's benthic modeling team we agreed to get the EPA/LWG team back together around December 1st to discuss the action items from the meeting. John Toll has provided a summary of the call (see his two emails below) and action items. We trust that our work is moving forward, and it sounds like the LWG will be ready to meet.

I am checking on our team's availability to meet (or participate in a conference call) on Thursday, December 2nd or Friday, December 3rd.

thanks
Chip
